

Sanjay Dutt to be chief guest the 15th Annual Bollywood Festival Norway

News | May 29, 2017 | 0 | by Stacey Yount

The wonderful Bollywood Festival Norway is celebrating 15 years of its glorious journey this year. To create an event that will not be forgotten they have a special guest at the festival this year.

The star attraction this year would be Sanjay Dutt. Mr Dutt will be the chief guest of honour for the event which will take place in Oslo & Lorenskog, Norway from 8th to 14th September 2017. There would be other guests present at the event whose names we will find out soon but it is sure to be fabulous.

Mr. Nasrullah Qureshi, festival director said, "We are very excited to have Mr. Sanjay Dutt on the opening day of the event. Cinema lovers of Norway would be very delighted to see Bollywood star in Norway. There has been a lot of excitement within the team after Sanjay Dutt sir's confirmation to the festival. The team has been working hard to give everyone the best 7 days to make memories."

Apart from screening films, Bollywood musical evening, film workshops and discussions, dance performances and Awareness of fitness and health will be part of the event.

Stay tuned we will bring you more about this exciting festival!

Share this: